Industrial

The raw atmosphere of abandoned factories, sparsity of accessories and neutral colours are the essence of this style. In interiors arranged in industrial style, open space and large windows are particularly important and are an integral part of the décor. Raw materials such as concrete, brick, glass and stone are some of the elements this style simply cannot do without. Moderation and well-balanced proportions in the choice of furniture, decorations or wall colours are its basic features. If you are an individualist who appreciates simple forms and practical solutions, this is the style for you.

Are you dreaming of a loft-style interior? We will help you arrange it. Subdued colours — shades of white, beige and grey — are the basis of loft-style arrangements. The neutral colour scheme can be enhanced with strong accents, which will enliven the raw interior. A wall of red brick or raw concrete? Why not. It is precisely such details that will give the interior a unique atmosphere. Furniture for loft-style flats should, above all, delight with simplicity, lack of decorative details and modern design. Functional cabinets and tables based on a metal frame and natural wood, as well as a large and comfortable corner sofa covered with grey upholstery will be perfect for such an interior.

TREND ALERT:

Nude

This is one of the leading trends in interior design. Full of harmony and peace, subtle, elegant, timeless. The pastel nude colour palette — sophisticated, skin-tone beige — has been among the top trends for several seasons now. A cosy, light as a feather, yet simple and purist interior. This is exactly the effect you can achieve with nude colours. Invite them into your home and wrap yourself in warmth. Immerse yourself in soothing colours, surrounded by objects coming straight from nature.

Wondering how to create a space around you that will allow you to capture inner balance? Go for a colour palette taken straight from nature. By using a variety of shades of beige - some closer to coffee-tones and some luminously lightened - you can create a fresh and naturally charming arrangement that will never be boring. Nude colours are trendy and look very chic when combined with grey and white. Colours taken from nature will soothe and calm your senses. We hope you will love them.
